Mr. A.M. Naik role as premier infrastructure company and contribution to nation building found affirmation once again leading business CNBC TV18 channel honoured him with the prestigious Infrastructure Leader of the Year award.

The award was presented at ceremony in New Delhi on May 08, 2012. Mr. Naik received the award from the Chief Guest, Mr. Kamal Nath, Union Minister for Urban Development.

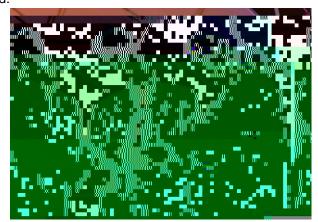

Above: Mr. A.M. Naik accepts Infrastructure Leader of the Year Award from the Union Minister, Mr. Kamal Nath. Below: Mr. K. Ravindranath and Mr. T. Chinnappa receive the Infrastructure Excellence Award.

Mr. Naik received several encomiums, the award, Mr. Naik said L&T would continue to augment its capabilities to play a leading role in the development of this crucial sector.

In a further honour for the Company, L&T Hydrocarbon business

Infrastructure Excellence Award for the successful execution of the from Barmer in Rajasthan to Salaya in Gujarat. This award was received by Mr. K. Ravindranath, EVP, Hydrocarbon Mid & Downstream, and Mr. T. Chinnappa, EVP, Hydrocarbon Construction & Pipelines, L&T.

The prestigious awards instituted by Network 18, acknowledge the achievements of . They showcase exceptional projects and recognise companies for their contribution in the field of infrastructure development.

The awards jury comprised a high powered panel including senior bureaucrats and leading professionals in the infrastructure space.