L&T Construction Wins Orders Valued 1,585 Crore

Mumbai, February 15, 2018: The construction arm of Larsen & Toubro has won orders worth 1,585 crore across various business segments.

Transportation Infrastructure business:

The business has won an order worth 513 Crore.

The business has bagged a new order from the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) for the four laning of the highway in the Aurangabad to Karodi section of NH-211 (New NH No 52) in the state of Maharashtra on EPC mode. The project involves construction of 30.21 Km of four lane dual carriage way with flexible pavement, 28.83 Km of service / slip roads and other structures like major bridges, The National Science (Is) The Nat

Power Transmission and Distribution Business:

The business has won orders worth

The scope of work includes supply and laying of transmission & distribution pipelines, design and construction of an intake well, pump houses, water treatment plants and water storage structures with associated electromechanical & instrumentation works.

Metallurgical & Material Handling Business:

The Metallurgical & Material Handling Business has bagged orders worth 201 Crore in the area of Blast Furnace Revamp & product business. The core strength of the business continues to win its capability to deliver complex projects / products.

Background:

Larsen & Toubro is an Indian multinational engaged in technology, engineering, construction, manufacturing and financial services with over USD 17 billion in revenue. It operates in over 30 countries worldwide. A strong, customer focused approach and the constant quest for top-class quality have enabled L&T to attain and sustain leadership in its major lines of business for over seven decades.