

: L&T Construction has won new orders worth ₹ 150 crore across various business segments in October and November 2013.

The company has secured a major order worth ₹ 100 crore from Kannur International Airport Limited for construction of a greenfield airport's air side works near Kannur city in Kerala.

The scope includes design, engineering and construction of earth work and pavements for runway, basic strips, turning pads, taxiways, apron, access roads, drainage system, related retaining structures, formation platform for landside facilities along with airfield ground lighting system, visual aids for navigation and bird hazard reduction system.

This order adds one more feather to the company's International airport construction expertise, matching global standards in line with Bangalore, Hyderabad, Delhi and Mumbai International airports.

In November 2013, new orders valued at ₹ 100 crore were secured from

L&T

Oman LLC, a subsidiary of Larsen & Toubro Limited in Oman, from Oman Electricity Transmission Company. The project is to be completed in 20 months and involves engineering, procurement and construction of two nos. 132/33 kV grid stations along with its 132 kV D/C overhead line and cabling works in Muscat Governorate, Sultanate of Oman.

Another order has been received from Karnataka Power Transmission Corporation Limited for construction of 220 kV D/C Transmission line from Gadag to Bagalkot district in Karnataka on total turnkey basis.

The _____ has secured an order worth ₹ _____ The order is